Police requests for Assistance Messages are immediately posted on the Noticeboard. Should anyone wishing to have these Ringmaster updates sent more rapidly than waiting for the Newsletter please send your e-mail address to me. We would be especially interested in passing on this information to persons living outside of the Village as well as anyone who overlooks main roads, side roads and farm tracks.

Local Area Ringmaster Messages:

1 Two batteries valued between £150-£200 and approximately 30 gallons of diesel have been stolen from Wath Quarry near Hovingham. If you have any information of recent suspicious vehicles or persons in the area please ring 101 quoting 12140186617

2 North Yorkshire Trading Standards are investigating a convicted rogue trader from the Scarborough and Whitby area, Paul Golding, who was recently convicted for fraud at Teesside Crown Court and sentenced to 8 months imprisonment. This person trades under PPS Plumbing and Building Services.

3 Over the past week, Trading Standards have been notified of a number of incidents of different firms 'cold calling' offering to lay tarmac drives and paths. Please be aware. If you are wanting such work doing, remember to obtain a number of quotes and the companies must inform you of a 14 day cooling off period which is your right to cancel should you change your mind. If you have any information regarding cold callers please contact Andy Fox Tel: 03454 04 05 06.
